

Best Antivirus Software (June 2023)

Protect your desktop and mobile devices with the best antivirus tools – picked by Cybernews security experts.

1. Strong real-time protection and impressive virus detection rates allow TotalAV to keep your computer safe even from the most recent and advanced security threats. It offers robust protection against viruses, trojans, ransomware, phishing scams, and malware.

Visit TotalAV \(hyperlink\)

2. This is the ultimate antivirus tool. Tightly packed with useful safety features yet extremely lightweight, Norton 360 will protect all facets of your digital life including bank account data, passwords, and more.

Visit Norton Antivirus \(hyperlink\)

Secure VPN included

3. Bitdefender offers excellent antivirus software tools. With reliable malware detection rates and extensive features, like a VPN, Parental Controls, Device optimization, and File Backup, you get full peace of mind in one package.

Visit Bitdefender \(hyperlink\)

4. NordVPN Threat Protection offers hassle-free virus protection. It scans downloads for malware, blocks ads and trackers. Keep all of your devices safe with NordVPN Threat Protection's lightweight and easy-to-use app.

Visit NordVPN TP \(hyperlink\)

5. Surfshark Antivirus is a perfect all-in-one antivirus tool for protecting your data. This complete security suite offers full real-time protection against malware, viruses, intrusive apps, and tracking.

Visit Surfshark Antivirus \(hyperlink\)

6. Aura offers solid all-around protection with plenty of security features like identity theft protection, extensive malware protection, parental controls and so much more.

Visit Aura Antivirus \(hyperlink\)

7. ESET offers top-class antivirus protection while keeping your devices as fast as ever. With payment protection for your credit cards, as well as privacy tools for your router and webcam, ESET is an excellent all-around security choice.

Visit ESET \(hyperlink\)

- 8. If you've never used an antivirus before, McAfee is the perfect tool to start with. It's intuitive, inexpensive, offers great internet security, and includes helpful customer support – perfect for all beginner users.

Visit McAfee (hyperlink)

- 9. Avira antivirus is known for its world-famous free version. But its premium option is even better, offering an integrated VPN, as well as excellent ransomware and malware protection.

Visit Avira (hyperlink)

- 10. Trend Micro is an effective tool for identifying, blocking, and eliminating malware with minimal impact on the overall performance of systems. Ransomware protection and web monitoring are included as well.

Visit Trend Micro (hyperlink)

How do we choose the best?

cybernews.com seeks to give the most relevant information about the tools we review. Our reviews are based both on objective (such as speed metrics) and subjective (e. g. user-friendliness, customer support) criteria. Service providers make constant updates regarding the provision of their services, thus, we do our best to keep up with them and change our reviews accordingly. However, please note the pricing could change quite frequently.