

TASK VIEW IN WINDOWS 11

Task view interface (Windows + TAB) lets you select running apps and other open windows, and do so across multiple virtual desktops. This interface can also be used to manage desktops: you can create new desktops, close existing desktops, and move apps and windows between different desktops. In addition to sporting a new layout and visual style, Task view in Windows 11 no longer supports the Timeline feature from Windows 10.